

I took these images between 1st and 13th July 2018 whilst travelling on a Cruise Ship from Dover via Kiel Canal (Germany), Travemunde (Germany), Ronne (Bornholm), Visby (Sweden), Turku (Finland), Helsinki (Finland), St Petersburg (Russia), Tallinn (Estonia) and back through the Kiel Canal to Dover.

Showtime on board was magical and not only did the ship's song and dance team produce their wonderful display of British razzmatazz but other artists and even the ship's crew put on a display. A wonderful atmosphere each evening.

The images below only show a sample of what I captured but to comply with the SoFoMoBo Book I could only show thirty five.
